Specifications

We offer Terracotta Flooring in a range of sizes and shapes, all featuring a natural color. Our terracotta tiles are full-body tiles, which means that the color is not just coated on the surface. This ensures that the color will not fade over time.

Terracotta flooring in its natural red color is the most popular choice for homeowners. You can find Terracotta color flooring in various sizes, such as 300 x 300 mm, 300 x 600 mm, and 500 x 500 mm. These tiles are perfect for living rooms, bedrooms, balconies, verandas, walkways, and more.

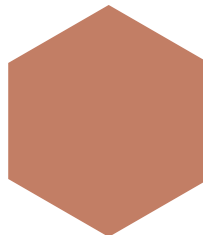

Chocolate-colored terracotta floor tiles are available in a 300 x 300 mm size. These tiles are full-bodied, meaning that the color will last forever. You can use this color for mix and match or as an entire flooring solution.

Choose cappuccino floor tiles to enhance the look of your room with the goodness of terracotta flooring. They are available in 300 x 300 mm and whole body. The water absorption of cappuccino floor tiles is slightly higher than other colours.

Natural red terracotta flooring is available in a rectangular shape with dimensions of 300 x 600 mm. This type of flooring can be mixed and matched with square floor tiles to create exciting patterns. One such pattern is the herringbone pattern, which can be created using rectangular terracotta flooring.

Elevate your space with the unique charm of Hexagon Terracotta Floor Tiles. Crafted for both interior and exterior use, these tiles seamlessly blend the advantages of terracotta's durability with the distinctive hexagonal design.
